OF PENNSYLVANIA

RHONDA FREEMAN,

Plaintiff,

vs.

CITY OF PHILADELPHIA,
PHILADELPHIA POLICE,
PHILADELPHIA FIRE DEPARTMENT,

Defendants.

CIVIL ACTION

CASE NO.

19

4105

CIVIL ACTION

FILED
By KATE [Signature], Clerk
Dep. Clerk

On November 14, 2017 Rhonda Freeman (herein after referred to as the "Plaintiff") called 911 after receiving contaminated envelopes with the name Alberina Driza handwritten on them that caused the Plaintiff dizziness, headaches, and shortness of breath. One of the envelopes were handwritten and addressed to the Plaintiff with no return address. One of the contaminated envelopes handwritten and addressed to the Plaintiff also had her name and address misspelled. When the Philadelphia Police officer arrived (herein after referred to as the "Defendant") the Plaintiff told him the health challenges she was having due to the contaminated envelopes, and the hacker she caught eavesdropping on her when she called LIHEAP on 11/8/17 and 11/9/17 who pretended to work for LIHEAP and lied by saying that he was assigned to her LIHEAP application and that he was processing the Plaintiff's application, but when the Plaintiff called LIHEAP's direct main phone number they said the Plaintiff's application is still being processed and was never assigned to anybody as of 11/8/17. When the Plaintiff called LIHEAP's main number back again on 11/9/17, LIHEAP said the same thing, that the Plaintiff's application is still being processed and has not been assigned to anybody. Even after the Plaintiff told the officer the health problems she was having from the envelopes and that she also caught a hacker eavesdropping on her both times she called LIHEAP on 11/8/17 and 11/9/17, the officer still refused to take them from her property at 5920 Lawndale Street to be tested. This incident with the defendant is video recorded, and the police report number is 2017-02-064390.

The Plaintiff did not receive any help from the Philadelphia Police until 129 days later on March 23, 2018 when the police sergeant supervising officer removed the bag of contaminated envelopes from the Plaintiff's home. This resulted in the Plaintiff being poisoned by biological substances from whatever was inside the contaminated envelopes after having bloodwork done at Einstein Medical Center. The police report number for this incident is 2018-02-014336.

The Plaintiff also called 911 again on November 16, 2017 and this time the fire department (herein after will be referred to as the "Defendant") came out. When the Philadelphia Fire Department arrived at the Plaintiff's home, one of the firefighters was holding a note folded in his hand. The firefighter that was holding the note folded in his hand also handed is HAZMAT device to the other firefighter that was standing next to him and the contaminated envelopes were never tested. So the contaminated envelopes were never tested on November 16, 2017 either. This incident is also video recorded.

On January 29, 2018 around 1:30 p.m. in the afternoon at the house across the street from the Plaintiff's home, at 5921 Lawndale Street an African American male was brought out the house by Fire Department paramedics on a stretcher, and it looked like the guy was unconscious on the stretcher. The Fire Department's paramedics vehicle that he was put in had no lights on and it was parked in front of the home that he was brought out of on the stretcher. As the Plaintiff continued looking out of her bedroom window, none of the neighbor's vehicles were parked along the sidewalk except for a black sedan that was parked between the front of the Plaintiff's home and her neighbor's home at 5918 Lawndale Street. The paramedics vehicle was parked in the middle of the street in front of 5921 Lawndale Street with no lights on for over 25 minutes, and there were two paramedics who took the guy inside the paramedics vehicle on the stretcher and there were also approximately 5-6 other paramedics standing together talking outside on the steps of 5921 Lawndale Street. While the paramedics were standing outside together talking, there was also a guy wearing an all brown jacket with yellow writing at the top of the jacket across the back of it in all capital letters who ran from Comly Street over to the paramedics that were talking, and the guy with the brown jacket with yellow capital letters across the back of it talked to the paramedics for a few moments and then ran back towards Comly Street. A few moments later two guys in black uniforms walked over from Van Kirk Street together and talked to the paramedics for a few moments as the paramedics were still standing outside, and then both guys walked back towards Van Kirk Street. Approximately 5 minutes later the fire department paramedics vehicle finally pulled off. After the paramedics vehicle pulled off, a dark brown SUV parked in the middle of the street in the same area where the paramedics vehicle was parked, and two guys got out the brown vehicle and left the SUV parked for hours in the middle of the street until approximately 10:00 p.m.

and no other vehicles could get pass. This incident may also be linked to the contaminated envelopes the Plaintiff received with the name Alberina Driza handwritten on them and the one also handwritten addressed to the Plaintiff with no return address, and the other contaminated envelope handwritten and addressed to the Plaintiff with her name and address misspelled. The Plaintiff does not have the Fire/EMS Report from the City for this incident.

Also on the City Of Philadelphia's website phila.gov, cases with the name Driza in it were removed from the City's website. The Civil Docket search results for cases with the terrorist name Driza originally showed 22 search results which also included the case that was filed by the terrorist against the Plaintiff, but now the search results are only showing 4 cases and the case that was filed by the terrorist against the Plaintiff doesn't show up at all in the search results. Somebody at City Hall is overwriting the old layout of the phila.gov website to cover up what happened by combing cases with the name Driza off the City's website.

RELIEF REQUESTED FROM THE COURT

Compensatory Damages & Punitive Damages

Compensatory damages is compensation from what the defendants actually did, and the defendants which are the Philadelphia Police and the Philadelphia Fire Department both failed to test any of the envelopes that led to the Plaintiff being poisoned by biological substances.

Punitive damages is compensation from the defendants careless negligent behavior to stop it from happening again. On November 14, 2017 the Plaintiff took the contaminated envelopes that were addressed to her at her home outside to try to make it easier to get help from the Philadelphia Police officer, and even told him about her health changes and the eavesdropping she caught and he still refused to remove them from her property to have them tested. The same problem happened again two days later on November 16, 2017 when the Philadelphia Fire Department came out to the Plaintiff's home when she took the bag of contaminated envelopes outside again to try to make it easier to get help and they didn't test any of the envelopes either. To make matters worse, the firefighter also handed his HAZMAT device to the other firefighter instead of testing any of the envelopes. This caused the Plaintiff to be directly exposed to whatever biological substances were in the envelopes and direct exposure lasted for over 100 days, until March 23, 2018 when the Sergeant, a supervisor from the Philadelphia Police, finally removed the bag of contaminated envelopes from the basement inside the Plaintiff's home. The behavior of both defendants is beyond careless and negligent.

There is a preponderance of evidence that shows that both defendants are responsible for the pain that the Plaintiff has suffered. The Plaintiff is requesting compensatory damages due to bioterrorism in the amount of $25,000,000, and punitive damages in the amount of $75,000,000 due to careless and negligent behavior that caused the Plaintiff to have to survive a bioterrorism attack.

EXHIBIT C

Exhibit C is the video recorded by the Plaintiff when the defendant arrived on November 14, 2017 that shows even after the Plaintiff told the officer the health problems she was having from the envelopes and that she also caught a hacker eavesdropping on her both times she called LIHEAP on 11/8/17 and 11/9/17, the officer still refused to take them from her property at 5920 Lawndale Street to be tested. The police report number for this incident is 2017-02-064390.

EXHIBIT D

Exhibit D is the video recorded by the Plaintiff when the defendant arrived on November 16, 2017 that shows one of the firefighters was holding a note folded in his hand after arriving at the Plaintiff's home. The firefighter in the video that was holding the note folded in his hand also handed is HAZMAT device to the other firefighter that was standing next to him; this is in the video as well. So the contaminated envelopes were never tested on November 16, 2017 either.
